„What do you think?"

James stood in front of a large mirror, staring at his stage outfit - black jeans, black shirt. Just his long golden lion's mane didn't match.

"Great," Lars murmured, not even looking. "Where's my second sock?"

"Not too MUCH?" James nervously tugged at his black Metallica-shirt with the black snake on the front.

Kirk groaned while he loosened up his dark curly hair to accentuate it's wildness.

"You look EXTREMELY hot," he told James.

"James, get off the shirt," Jason meant, grinning. "Too much black shocks the ladies. Better soothe their eyes by showing up your six-pack!"
